ABSTRACT

Animals familiar to the northwest region of California where Hupa Indians reside are depicted in this coloring book which belongs to a series of materials developed to promote the use of the Hupa language. Each page contains a bold pen and ink drawing of an animal and the animal's name in the Unifon alphabet used for writing the Hupa language. There are no English translations. Each animal is presented in its habitat, e.g., a bear is by a stream where he has just caught a fish, a hummingbird is hovering near a bell-shaped flower, and pigeons are pecking at seeds on the ground. The animals depicted are eel, bear, hummingbird, blue jay, pigeon, owl, eagle, and four other species of birds. (JHZ)
